Special Weather Bulletin. RAIN TO-NIGHT AND COOLER WEATHER TO-MORROW. The chief signal officer of the army furnishes the following special bulletin to the press: The barometer is lowest in the St. Lawrence valley and highest in the upper Missouri valley. Partly cloudy weather and local rains are reported from New England and the middle states, and from the Lake region, Tennessee and the Ohio valley, with south to west winds. Clear weather prevails in the south Atlantic and east Gulf states, with westerly winds, and generally fair weather is reported from the northwest, with cooler northerly winds. The temperature has fallen in the Lake region and the northwest, and in the interior of New England and the middle states, and risen in the southwest and at stations on the New England and middle Atlantic coast. The following special temperatures were reported at 7 a. m. this morning: Eastport, 60°; Montreal, 65°; Quebec, 63°; Mt. Washington, 52°; Cleveland, 70°; Alpena and Duluth, 57°; St. Paul, 66°; Denver, 63°; San Francisco, 52°. The following stations report more than one inch of rainfall during the past 24 hours: Albany, 1.01; Port Huron, 1.79; San Antonio, 1.47; Eagle Pass, 1.88, and Delaware Breakwater, 1.04. The indications are that local rains will prevail in New England, middle states and the Lake region

A BASKET OF SUMMER FRUIT may be a great luxury if ripe and in season; but in summer a great deal of sickness comes from eating unripe and withered fruit. Colic, eramps and summer complaint are the result of indulgence in fruit which is not wholesome. These are bad; yet it is well to know that Perry Davis' Pain Killer is a sovereign straining love of Christ. Rev. W. L. Lynch up by brazen pretence and bluster to the jury. in Concord, N. Death of Col. Jos. R. Stewart.

Joseph B. Stawart died yesterday at St. Luke's Hospital, New York, where he had been taken for treatment on Sunday. He died of fatty degeneration of the heart, after four month's illness. Col. Stewart was about 60 years old at the time of his death. He was a native of Trimble county, Kentucky. After graduating in law at the Lexington, Ky., Law School, he continued his studies in the office of Henry Clay. In his younger days he was concerned in one or more dueis, and as on the statute books of Kentucky there was a law debarring an attorney involved in a duel from practice, he procured the passage of an act removing his disabilities. After practicing law at Bedford, Trimble county, Ky., for a time, he moved to ouisville and, becoming engaged in the Gilbert Russell case, in which the title of a large part of Louisville was involved, he came here to argue the case before the Supreme Court of the United States about 1855, and from that time to the present he lived here at times. He next was engaged in the case of Reeside for carrying the mails. His first wife was a Miss Hughes, of Lexington, Ky.: his second Miss Octavia Ridgley, of New York, who, at the time of the marriage, 1860, was one of the belies of Washington society. She died in Paris some seven or eight years ago, leaving no Paris some seven or eight years ago, leaving no children. Mr. Stewart becoming interested in railroading was connected with the litigation arising out of the complication of the affairs of the Alexandria railroad company, and subsequently became interested in other roads. It will be remembered that during the credit mobilier investigation of 74 and 75 Mr. Stewart refused to tell what had become of certain bonds, basing his refusal on his privilege as an attorney, and was confined as a contumacious witness for some time by order of the House of Representatives. Mr. Stewart subsequently entered suit for damages caused thereby, but the suit was dismissed. Col. Stewart was in Ford's Theater the night of the assassination of President Lincoln, and came near capturing Booth, having when the shot was fired umped at once upon the stage.

THE SOUTHERN DENTAL ASSOCIATION Will begin its annual session in Baitimore to-day. Dr. E. S. Chisholm, of Tuscaloosa, Ala., is president; the secretaries are Dr. J. P. Holmes, Macon, Ga., and Dr. W. H. Hoffman, of Charlotte, N.C. The executive committee consists of Dr. R. B. Winder, of Baltimore, and Drs. R. Finley Hunt and Jas. B. Hodgkin, of this city.

WILLS FILED.-The will of Virginia E. Pickrell, of West Washington, filed for probate yesterday, gives an annuity of $100 to Miss Elizabeth Dozier: leaves $1,000 to Lillie V. Davis, niece of the deceased, and the residue of her estate to her children. The will, made on the 12th of May, 1880, is attested by Mattie D. Abbott, Lily A. Wilson and Downs L. Wilson. The will of Joseph Narden, made 21st of June, 1880, and attested by Robert E. Doyle, A. J. Wheatley and Gideon W. Larner, bequeaths his estate to his family.

The Camp-Meeting Season. CLOSING HOURS OF THE JACKSON GROVE CAMP. Special Correspondence of THE EVENING STAR.

JACKSON GROVE, ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY, MD., August 8th Yesterday the weather was very warm in camp, and the tenters, complaining of the heat, consoled themselves by thinking of the close streets and scorehing walls in the cities. The heat did not, however, operate to diminish the attendance at the meetings, and the congregations were of fair size. After the revival services of Sunday night it was thought that similar services would be continued on Monday, but that was not the case.

YESTERDAY'S SERVICES. The early morning prayer meeting was conducted by Rev. Mr. Coulbourne, and the meeting aging proofs massed on the other instead of for prayer and experience, at 9 o'clock, was led by weaken the prosecution. The fact that neither Rev. Mr. Stone. Rev. H. In the afternoon Rev. Mr. Trout preached from Matthew XI., 3: "Art thou He that should come, or do we look for another." At 6% o'clock the young people's meeting was held in a tent, and it was a spirited meeting. At night Rev. A. D. Melvin, of Howard county, preached from I Peter, IV., 17th and 18th verses. Four penitents appeared at the altar in response to invitation. Two of them were converted, the meeting being kept up till 10% o'clock. One was a young lady from Ohio, and the other was from Alexandria, Va.

THE CLOSING SERVICES TO-DAY. This morning the early 'prayer meeting was led stands uncontradicted and unshaken. by Rev. Mr. Coulbourne. Rev. Dr. Sutherland will preach this morning; Rev. Mr. Cushing in the afternoon, and Rev. Ms. Melvin to-night, and with

THE UNION STREET IMPROVEMENT.-It is now well understood that the repaying of Union street. from one end of the town to the other, from the ship yards to the fish wharf, will cost at least 33 per cent more than the first estimate. The estimated cost was $3,000, and the city council appropriated one-half-$1,:00-the other half being paid by other parties using the street. It is now understood that the work will cost $4,500 or perhaps $5,000. The enterprise is a considerable one. being the entire renewal of the sidewalks and carnearly a mile in length. Union street is the only street in the eastern section of the city named H H H O O SSSS TTTT EEE TTTT Subsequent to the reveletion of the city named H H H O O SSSS T EE T subsequent to the revolution. It is formed, from Duke to Queen street, on made ground, redeemed from the river. This was done about the time the new Constitution of the United States was established, and its name given as a monument of the union of the states. It was for many years the hotel street of the town. The landings from the river took place mainly at the foot of Duke and Wolfe streets; and there clustered the inns of the early days. Washington Masonic lodge was instituted at Lamb's hotel, on Union, near Duke street. At a later period, when steamers were first used on the Potomac, and railroads had not come into use, the site of hotels was moved north, and the Steamboat hotel and other hotels were built north of Prince street. Then passengers came in stages from the north and west, and remained overnight on Union street, to take steamers for Richmond, Norfolk or Baltimore early next day. Some of these hotel buildings still stand. Of late the use of the street for railroad purposes has much diminished its use for dwellings, and many houses there have fallen into decay. Some have been ruined and torn down to prevent them from falling. Warehouses and manufactories now, with little exception, make up the street.
THE WARRENTON CAMP.—The Alexandria Light Infantry met last night and made arrangements for the Warrenton Springs camp. A detail of two men with ordnance summers will leave on Friday next for the camp ground. There they will be met by a detail from each of the other companies of the regiment, and the joint detail will proceed to put up tents and make the camp. Col. Wertenbaker will command. Among those present on the occasion will be Governor Cameron, Gen. Lee, the colonels of the regiments of this neighborhood, the principals of military schools in this section, including the principal of St. John's academy of this place. REPORTER'S NOTES.—Jerry Reynolds, deserter from the schooner Martha M. Collapse of the Star Route Defense. From the N. Y. Herald.

To us yesterday's collapse of the star route defense is no surprise. We have been expecting it daily for a week. When the defendants' lawyers made the mock heroic pretence that the evidence put in by the prosecution hardly required their attention and airly talked about going to the jury without putting any witnesses of their own on the stand it needed little penetration to see that this was but a transparent ruse to hide the fact that they had no evidence to produce. This fact has been daily made plainer by the character of the witnesses and the nature of the testimony offered by the defense. So weak and irrelevant has been the bulk of this testimony, so inadequate to meet the direct and damagainst the defense. And yet the defendants' lawyers doubtless had good reason for not taking this risk in the well-grounded belief that the crossexamination of these witnesses and the rebutting testimony that would have followed would be far more damaging to the defense than the bad impression created by not calling them. The failure o call Brady to contradict Walsh is specially significant. When Petersen was put on the stand for that purpose his testimony was very properly rejected as irrelevant by Juige Wylle, who plainly told the defendants' lawyers that Brady was the proper witness to produce against Walsh. This hint was not taken, and Walsh's direct and conclusive evidence of the ring's corruption now these services the camp will close. It is probable before August, 1878. This statement was disproved

The defense suffered another disastrous blow yesterday from the witness Boone, who was called by the prosecution to contradict Vaile, who swere, among other things, that he had never met Miner that an informal meeting will be held in the morn- by Boone, who testified that he met both Vaile and Miner at Senator Dorsey's house in April of that Yesterday there was an unexpected meeting on | year, and that Vaile had then and there signed a to cover up their tracks by doing their "business on graveyard principles," but they are doubtless now sufficiently convinced that their efforts in that direction were not wholly successful. On the whole we are constrained to say that the tually on the proofs submitted by the prosecution. But what the defense lacks in evidence the lawyers on that side will doubtless undertake to make

DY UNIVERSAL ACCORD, AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS are the best of all purgatives for family use. They are the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, and their extensive use, by physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations, proves them the best and most effectual purgative Pill that medical science can devise. Being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use, and being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take. In intrinsic value and curative powers no other Pills can be compared with them; and every person, knowing their virtues, will employ them, when needed. They keep the system in perfect order, and maintain in healthy action the whole machinery of life. Mild, searching and effectual, they are especially adapted to the needs of the digestive apparatus, derangements of which they prevent and cure, if timely taken. They are the best and safest physic to employ for children and weakened constitutions, where a mild but effectual cathartic is required.

For sale by all druggists.
